ATTEND FOR FREE

If you don't want to register to bid, but are interested in the auction process or potentially selling at auction, you can attend our events to see what it's like. You can also ask our auction team any questions you may have, for example:

Is my property suitable for auction?

Any type of property is suitable for sale by auction. Lots range from traditional residential properties from all price ranges, style and condition, new-build development, tenanted investments, developments sites and all sectors of commercial property. Selling through auction is the preferred method of sale in the USA, Canada, and in mainland Europe.

If you are interested in selling by auction and would like to speak to someone sooner, don't hesitate to contact our Auction team on 0845 4 599 499

AUCTION DAY PROCEDURE

Before placing a bid we strongly advise that you carry out market research and due diligence on any property you are interested in bidding on. Make sure to review any legal documents we may have for the subject property. We recommend that before bidding you visually inspect the property internally and are completely happy with what's on offer.

Registration

You will require photographic I.D. and proof of address to obtain a bidding paddle to enable you to bid at a property auction. If you intend to bid please remember to bring with you your debit/credit card or bankers draft for your Reservation Fee and the required identification. Please also bring the contact details of the solicitor you intend to use.

Bidding For Your Lot

When the auctioneer announces your lot he will also bring to your attention any last minute items which you should be aware of. He will read the full address of the property, so please double check before bidding that this is the lot that you are interested in. The current lot number is usually displayed with a photograph on screens at the front of the room. The auctioneer will invite bids at a particular level and you can make this bid by raising your paddle, hand or catalogue. If you wish to make a bid other than the auctioneer calls, please shout out your bid and the auctioneer may or may not accept it. The property will be 'knocked down' to the highest bidder – but not until the auctioneer warns you by saying 'going, going, gone'. Never delay until the last second with your bid – you may lose it. Remember, there may be 300+ people in the room and unless your bid is clear the auctioneer may not see you.

On The Fall Of The Hammer

If you are the successful bidder, a member of the auction team will approach you and ask you to follow them to the sales room. You will be asked to provide a reservation fee or deposit. We will then prepare the acknowledgement of reservation form for you to sign using the details provided. Exchange will usually take place a maximum of 28 days later under the supervision of your solicitor upon receipt of Draft Contract. Please do not leave the auction room without paying your deposit or reservation fee and signing the relevant paperwork.

If The Lot You Want Is Unsold

If a lot fails to reach its reserve in the room and you wish to buy it, ensure you register your highest bid with us before you leave the room. We will contact the vendor and ask them for their instructions and contact you if we think that a sale after the auction is negotiable. Alternatively, call us in the office after the sale.

Bidding Prior to the Auction

Any bid or registration of interest must be presented to the vendor in real time which may lead to a property being sold prior to the auction event. Buyers are urged to register their interest early to avoid any disappointment. If you require any assistance with finance or conveyancing then speak to a member of the auction team who will be happy to provide quotes from our specialist panel.

Remember! If you're not planning to attend the auction, but would like to bid by proxy or phone, you must fill and return the form in this catalogue or contact the team to pre-register on:

OUR METHODS OF AUCTION

Modern Method of Auction

The Modern Method of Auction is different to traditional auction procedures in the UK, in that it is conditional. This means that the sale is not legally binding once a bid is accepted. The successful bidder is required to pay a Buyers Reservation Fee/ Deposit and sign a Reservation Agreement. The property is then reserved to the buyer. The buyer and seller are then required to unconditionally exchange contracts and complete the transaction within 56 days.

Traditional Method of Auction

This is an Unconditional Auction where on acceptance of an offer or on the fall of the hammer the buyer will pay up to a 10% deposit and exchange of contracts is immediate. Both parties are then legally bound to buy and sell. Traditional Auctions are mainly used by the investment market for properties that attract significant interest from professional investors. The residential sector can find it harder to buy through a traditional auction because there is a limited amount of time to put finance in place, meaning many purchases through a traditional auction are cash based.

The Verdict

Whilst the Traditional Auction is useful for disposing of investment stock to the investment market quickly and efficiently, the residential market requires more than this. The Modern Method offers the ability to maximise the level of interest from a broad range of buyers, in turn creating the best sales price in the current market but still benefiting from the security of a non refundable reservation fee or deposit and a fixed date to move and sell.

PROOF OF IDENTIFICATION

All successful bidders must provide Proof of Identity and Proof of Address in order for us to comply with money laundering regulations.

Original documents must be provided.
Photocopies are not accepted.

Important notice!

You must supply at least one document from each list below to proceed with the sale.*

Proof of Identity Tick List

- Current Signed Passport
- Current Full UK/EU Photo Card Driving Licence
- Current full UK Driving Licence (old style) (Provisional licenses not accepted).
- Resident permit issued by the Home Office to EU Nationals.
- Inland Revenue Tax Notification.

Proof of Address Tick List

- Current full UK Driving Licence (Provisional licenses not accepted).
- A utility bill issued in the last three months (Not a mobile phone bill)
- Local Authority tax bill (Current year)
- Bank / Building Society / Credit Union statement containing current address.
- Most recent original mortgage statement from a UK lender.

DEPOSITS / RESERVATION FEES

Deposits and /or fees will be accepted by one of the following methods:

Banker's Draft, Debit / Credit Cards.

NO CASH OR CHEQUES WILL BE ACCEPTED

GLOSSARY OF COMMON AUCTION TERMS

Addendum

This is the document published on the day of the auction containing all changes and additions to the details within the catalogue. It is important that you read this document before bidding to see if there is anything significant listed against your lot. We will be compiling these amendments right up until the auction day. The most up to date copy is always available from our Auction Department. The Addendum forms part of the contract of sale.

Reserve Price

This is the minimum price that is acceptable to the vendor for selling their lot in the auction. We do not publish Reserve Prices; this figure is a private agreement between the vendor and the auctioneer, however as a guide the Reserve is generally around 10% in excess of the Starting Bid. Both the Starting Bid and Reserve can be subject to change.

Reservation Fee

Unless otherwise stated, each property is sold subject to a Reservation Fee of 4.2% including VAT subject to a minimum of £6,000 including VAT. If you are interested in a particular lot please speak to a member of the team before you bid and clearly read the Terms & Conditions attached to the property. Please note that the Reservation Fee is in addition to the final negotiated selling price, and is paid on a non-refundable basis. It is held as a reservation against the subject property until exchange of contracts take place. If the sale falls through due to the vendor breaching the terms of the agreement the Reservation Fee or deposit becomes repayable to the buyer in full.

Reservation Deposit

Under this method of sale the buyer will be required to pay a Reservation Deposit. The Reservation Deposit is calculated against the final negotiated selling price at 4.2% including VAT subject to a minimum of £6,000 including VAT. The deposit is taken as a part payment of the final negotiated selling price and will be deducted from the balance of the final selling price upon completion of contracts. The deposit is taken on a non-refundable basis. The deposit is held as a reservation against the subject property. If the sale falls through due to an act or action of the vendor, the deposit becomes repayable to the buyer in full.

Exchange of Contracts

The buyer will sign the contract for sale and send it to the seller, who also signs it. This is the point at which both parties are legally obliged to complete the transaction, and usually takes place a maximum of 28 days after the buyer's solicitor is in receipt of draft contracts. At this point there is a legal obligation for the purchaser to buy and the vendor to sell.

Completion of Contracts

This is when the purchase becomes final. The purchase price is paid in full by the buyer's conveyancer and received by the seller's conveyancer. The seller must move out of the property on this date and release the keys to the buyer.

Special Conditions Of Sale

In addition to these 'general' conditions applicable to each lot the vendor's solicitor may draft additional terms applicable to their individual lot – these are the Special Conditions.

These are not printed in the catalogue and are available for free from the Auction Department if applicable. They form part of the Contract of Sale. It is important that you satisfy all of your legal enquiries and are aware of all conditions (including any Addendum) before you bid at auction.

Energy Performance Certificate (EPCs)

EPCs contain information on your home's energy use and typical energy costs, with recommendations on how to reduce energy use and save money.

Auction Catalogue

Details of the property and land to be sold are set out in this catalogue. All lots are sold subject to Special Conditions of Sale. It is important that prospective purchasers satisfy themselves as to the location, boundaries, condition and state of the lots before the auction.

Starting Bids

These are prices published for each property and are the level at which the bidding will commence. They are for guidance only and are not Reserve Prices. They may occasionally change during the marketing period. Each Starting Bid has a corresponding Reserve Price that is usually in excess of the starting price.

Insurance

Unless indicated to the contrary, the seller will continue to be responsible for insuring the property until completion.

Viewing

Due to the nature and condition of auction properties, we highlight the potential risk that viewing such properties carries and advise all to proceed with caution and take necessary actions to ensure their own safety whilst viewing any lot in this catalogue. Viewings are conducted entirely at your own risk, these properties are not owned or controlled by the Auction Department and we cannot be held liable for loss or injury caused while viewing or accessing any lot. Due to the nature of some auction properties, electricity may not be turned on therefore viewing times are restricted.

The Legal Aspect

The legal aspect of buying at auction is a contractual commitment. Before making an offer prior to auction or bidding at the auction it is advisable to consult a solicitor regarding the General and Special Conditions of Sale, the Local Authority Search and other legal documentation.

Pre Auction Offers

If a property has been entered to a live auction room at one of our regional auctions the online bidding facility is disabled. If you wish to place a pre auction offer you will need to speak with a member of the Auction Team who will explain the process to you. The vendor can consider offers prior to the live auction, but this is at their discretion to do so. The auctioneers or vendors cannot be held responsible for costs incurred in respect of any lot which is withdrawn or sold prior to auction.

Buyer Information Pack

A Buyer Information Pack is a range of legal documents prepared before the property is sold via auction. This gives the buyer a chance to view the legal aspects of the property before purchasing.

The pack includes: Property Information forms, Fixture and Fittings forms, official Land Registry Documents, Title Plan, Local Search and Water and Drainage Search, leasehold documents if applicable and auction Terms and Conditions.

The successful purchaser will be required to pay £200 including VAT for the preparation of the Buyer Information Pack.

Once the property is sold, the pack will be forwarded to the solicitors involved to ensure a speedy exchange and completion.

If you have any queries or further questions regarding the information in this catalogue, don't hesitate to speak to a member of our auction team who will be able to offer you sound advice. You can contact us by telephone, e-mail or alternatively visit our website www.westmidlandspropertyauction.co.uk

Reservation Fee

These conditions govern the conduct of “conditional” or “modern method” auctions operated by IAM Sold Limited (Company or Auctioneer or us/we/our).

All properties sold by auction using the Company website or by a physical auction which are expressed to be either a “conditional” or “modern method” auction are governed by these conditions.

A non-refundable reservation fee of 4.2% including VAT, subject to a minimum of £6,000 including VAT must be paid by the buyer immediately following the conclusion of the auction or acceptance of an offer. This must be paid by cleared funds to the Auctioneer who will issue an Acknowledgement of Reservation.

Introduction

These conditions have three main sections.

1. Glossary

This gives special meanings to some words used in the rest of the conditions.

2. The conduct of the auction

This section regulates the conduct of the auction. If you bid for a property which is offered for sale by conditional auction you do so on the basis that you accept them.

3. Conditions of reservation

If you win a conditional auction for a property you must sign a reservation form under which you agree to be bound by the conditions of reservation relevant to that property. The conditions are legally binding.

Important notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a property:

- Inspect the Buyer Information Pack for the relevant property.
- Have finance available for the fees, deposit and purchase price.
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries.
- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant.
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the property.
- Check that what is said about the property in the Buyer Information Pack is accurate.
- Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable for commercial properties.

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer. If you choose to buy a property without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

A1 Auction Conduct Conditions

A1 Introduction

A1.1 Words in bold type have specified meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

A1.2 Where a property is advertised for auction:

- (a) online, you have been given access to that auction only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions;
- (b) in a catalogue, you are only issued that catalogue on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions, which govern our relationship with you and cannot be disapplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Conditional Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

A2 Our role

A2.1 As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- (a) prepare the catalogue (as applicable) from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller;
- (b) offer each property for sale by conditional auction; Page 1 of 3 V3.3
- (c) receive and hold reservation deposits (if applicable);
- (d) receive reservation fees (if applicable);
- (e) sign each reservation form on behalf of each seller; and
- (f) treat a reservation form as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign that reservation form or pay a reservation fee or reservation deposit (as applicable).

A2.2. Our decision on the conduct of the conditional auction is final.

A2.3 We may cancel the conditional auction, or change the way in which a property is offered for sale. We may also combine or divide properties. A property may be sold or withdrawn from sale prior to the conditional auction.

A2.4 You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

A3 Bidding and reserve prices

A3.1 All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.

A3.2 We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why.

A3.3 All bids made online must comply with the terms and conditions which apply to use of our website or to the use of our partner's websites (as applicable).

A3.4 if there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final.

A3.5 Unless stated otherwise each property is subject to a reserve price (which may be fixed just before the property is offered for sale). If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the property will be withdrawn from the conditional auction.

A3.6 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.

A3.7 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price, but not always – as the seller may fix the final reserve price just before bidding commences.

A4 The Buyer Information Pack and other information

A4.1 We have taken reasonable care to describe each property (either online or in a catalogue). The description of a property is based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information is correct.

A4.2 The description of a property and the Buyer Information Pack may change prior to the conditional auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

A4.3 If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

A5 the reservation agreement

A5.1 A successful bid is one we accept as such (normally on the fall of the hammer or close of an auction online). This condition A5 applies to you if you make the successful bid for a property.

A5.2 You are required to enter into a reservation agreement which obliges you to proceed to purchase the property at the price you bid plus VAT (if applicable).

A5.3 You must:

- (a) provide all information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the reservation form (including proof of your identity and address if required by us);
- (b) sign the completed reservation form; and

(c) pay the reservation fee or reservation deposit (as required by the reservation form).

A5.4 If you do not we may either:

(a) as agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the reservation form and offer the property for sale again. The seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or

(b) sign the reservation form on your behalf.

A5.5 Where a reservation deposit is paid, that reservation deposit:

(a) is to be held by us as agent for the seller, but otherwise is to be held as stated in the reservation conditions; and

(b) must be paid in pounds sterling either by credit/debit card or by way of a bank transfer made payable to us from an approved financial institution. Please note, we are not able to accept payments made in cash or accept Bank Transfers where the deposit for the transfer was paid in cash.

A5.6 We may retain the reservation form signed by or on behalf of the seller until the reservation deposit or reservation fee (as applicable) has been received in cleared funds.

A5.7 If you do not comply with your obligations under the reservation form then you are personally liable to comply with the obligations under the reservation form even if you are acting as an agent for the buyer.

A5.8 Where the buyer is a company, you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the property.
